Business of Farming Conference

February 25, 2017 | AB Tech Community College, Asheville, NC

ASAP's Business of Farming Conference is the region's only annual event dedicated to farm marketing, business planning, and management. The conference serves more than 200 farmers from across the region and the Southeast. The conference will be held at AB Tech Community College in Asheville, NC on Saturday, February 25, 2017.

The Business of Farming Conference provides tools and resources for beginning and experienced farmers to build more sustainable farm businesses. The conference includes business and marketing workshops, professional consulting, an exhibitor hall, and valuable networking activities including a Grower-Buyer Meeting where farmers and local wholesale buyers meet to discuss products and sourcing needs.

A sponsorship of ASAP's Business of Farming Conference will showcase you as a leader of the local food movement ensuring that farmers have the tools they need to grow and thrive. Your sponsorship is a unique opportunity to meet with farmers who are eager to improve their business and connect to new markets.
