Corners Knob Farm • Madison County, NC

Every year, Jim Lounsbury finds hundreds of arrowheads in his Madison County fields. The land has a rich history, and Jim believes this contributes to the special sweetness of his famous melons.

For years Corner's Knob was a tree farm, but when Jim's son returned from Iraq he was determined to farm fresh fruits and vegetables. Father and son began working together, reclaiming land that had been in tobacco for decades. Today, a dozen crops flourish in the fertile bottomland.
